R.A.D. BASIC PHYSICAL DEFENSE CLASSES

University Police- Rape Aggression Defense (R.A.D.) Registration Form

The R.A.D. Aggression Defense course is a program of realistic, self-defense tactics, and techniques. The R.A.D. System is a comprehensive course for women that begins with awareness, prevention, risk reduction and avoidance, while progressing on to the basics of hands-on defense training. R.A.D. is not a martial arts program. Our courses are taught by certified R.A.D. instructors and provide you with a workbook/reference manual. This manual outlines the entire physical defense program for reference and continuous personal growth.

The 12-hrs RAD program is conducted in multiple sessions and participants must attend all sessions. Unless otherwise noted, all RAD classes are held by the Buffalo State College University Police Department. Class size is limited to 20 students, so register early.

There is NO COST for the program and the program is open to all women.

Parking permits are required on campus at all times. If you do not currently have a valid BSC parking permit, a visitor permit may be obtained at the Parking Services Office located at Chase Hall Room 121.

If you have any additional questions about the program, please contact Officer Scott Richards (richarsk@buffalostate.edu) or Lieutenant Richard Myers (myersrf@buffalostate.edu) at (716) 878-6333.

Thank you for your interest in the RAD program - We look forward to seeing you soon!

If you wish to register for the RAD Basic Physical Defense Class or just be notified for the next class, please print out the R.A.D. Registration form, complete and submit to the University Police Department located at Chase Hall 127. Attention to Officer Richards or Lt. Richard Myers.
